

I completely disagree with removing rules on ownership of Broadcast stations. Rules should be tightened. The airwaves are owned by the public and always should remain so. Concentration of ownership will lead to censorship and little dissent in our nation.